Auctioneer. EXECUTORS' SALE OF A VALUA-BLE FARM IN CHARLES CITY COUNTY. NEAR JAMES RIVER—The undersiened, execu-tors of A. C. Adams, deceased, will offer for sale at public auction, at Charles City Courthouse, on THURSDAY, JUNE 23, 1881, at 6 o'clock P. M., that valuable property located as above, known as "METROPOLITAN HALL." The LOT has a front of 103½ feet, ranning back about 120 feet, more or less, to an alley leading out to Governor street. The building is not only a large one, but it was originally very substantially built, and is now well adapted for the purpose for which it has long been used, but with some modificatious could be converted into a warehouse or manc. actory. It is located equi-distant between the Capitol Square and fixchange and Baliard Hotel, and fronting on Franklin street, which has recently been newly paved, should commend itself to the attention of capitallists as a solid luvestment.

TERMS: One fifth cash; balance at six, twelve, eighteen, and twenty-four months for negotiable rotes, interest added, half-yearly, secured by a deed of trust.

W. GODDIN. NEAR JAMES RIVER.—The understates, excess tors of A. C. Adams, deceased, will offer for sale at public anction, at Charles City Courthouse, on THURSDAY, JULY 21, 1881.

(that being court-day), that VALUABLE FARM of which A. C. Adams died seized and possessed, known as COLESVILLE, situated in Charles City county, Va., one mile from Willcox wharf, on James river, and containing 325 ACRES OF LAND (more or less), 225 of which are stable and now in a high state of cultivation. This farm—one of the best in the most desirable part of the county—possesses unusual advantages. It is convenient to churches of nearly every denomination, is within one mile of a river landing and post-office, and only two miles from the court bouse.

Upon the premises are one large and commodious TWO-STORY IWELLING with ten reoms, an OFFICE in the yard, six good OUT-HOUSES in good repair, with brick chimneys; two large BARNS, and one new STABLE; one new STORE-HOUSE. A bold stream of excellent spring water rises upon and runs through the farm.

There is at present more than enough first-growth PINE TIMBER to supply the premises, and a quantity of young limber which will, in a few years, be large enough for cord wood.

Persons desiring to inspect the premises can reach them easily by the steamer Ariel from Richmond, Norfok, or any river landing, and Mr. John Landwholives near, will take pleasure in showing them.

TRAMS: One third cash; the bilance in one, two, and three years, the nurchaser to give negotiable notes with interest added; deed given and deed of trust taken to secure the deferred payments.
